ADVANCED WOUND CARE LINE GROWS AT DYNAREX

ORANGEBURG, NY – Dynarex, a leading medical supply company, adds several new products to its Advanced Wound Care line. These include DynaRule™ Bullseye Measuring Guide, Retractable Tape Measure, SiliGentle™ AG Silver Foam Dressings and DynaSorb™ Super Absorbent Dressings. The following are descriptions of each product:

DynaRule™ Bullseye Measuring Guide – Disposable, transparent wound measuring guide

- Measures wound diameter in both inches and centimeters (up to 10 cm)
- Flexible plastic sheets with bulls-eye grid and ruler allow for easy length, width and diameter measurement of any wound

Retractable Tape Measure – Measures in both inches and centimeters and is retractable, flexible for easier readings and measures up to 72" to 182 cm.

SiliGentle™ AG Silver Foam Dressings – Used for a wide range of exuding wounds with delayed healing due to bacteria or where there is risk of infection

- Maintains a moist wound environment to provide an optimal healing environment
- Antimicrobial, sterile soft silicone foam dressing that absorbs exudate
- Indicated for management of partial and full thickness wounds, including leg and pressure injuries, second-degree burns, donor sites and skin abrasions

DynaSorb™ Super Absorbent Dressings – Rapidly absorb wound exudate into super absorbent polymer core

- Minimizes the risk of maceration and leakage, trapping wound fluids away from wound
- Self-adherent style features silicone contact layer, providing gentle care for fragile skin
- Indicated for the management of partial and full thickness wounds, including leg and pressure injuries and non-infected diabetic foot ulcers

“Dynarex demonstrates its position as the leading medical supply company in the industry by continuing to grow the advanced wound care product line,” says company CEO Zalman Tenenbaum. “We now have more than 60 products in our advanced wound care line along with hundreds of general wound care products, which exhibits our focus on continually serving the needs of our customers,” he adds.
